

“Continuing my education helped me so much. I am on my way to a better career and a happier life for my family, and I feel more confident in everything I do.”
~ David Robicheau

David Robicheau knows how hard it is to find work and provide for a family without an education. “I didn’t want my daughter to follow my example and struggle through life, so I enrolled in an adult learning program at the Digby Area Learning Association. I met a lot of great people at school. Now I have my grade twelve, and I plan to study skilled trades at NSCC. I also found a job with decent hours and good pay.”

David’s career goal is to be plumber. The knowledge and self confidence he gained from adult learning will see him through the next two years of schooling required to get his plumbing certificate. “I’ve learned how important my goal is, and now I have the courage to stick with it. I know all my efforts will be worth it in the end.”
