PUTTING THIS BOOK TOGETHER BOTH TOOK ME BACK AND BROUGHT ME INTO THE GATHERING ABOUT LITERACY RESEARCH IN PRACTICE. As one of the Gathering organizers, I was reminded of how special it was to imagine a particular kind of event and to see it happen. I also recalled that many, many people and organizations made it possible to host the Gathering in Edmonton.

The Gathering was sponsored by the Literacy Coordinators of Alberta, in partnership with the Centre for Research on Literacy, University of Alberta, and The Learning Centre Literacy Association, Edmonton. The National Literacy Secretariat, Human Resources Development Canada, funded the Gathering and the University of Alberta contributed meeting space and on-site assistance.

Candice Jackson (LCA), Linda Phillips (CRL), and I (TLC), represented the sponsoring agencies and played various roles in planning and organizing the Gathering. Diana Kaan (NLS) facilitated the proposal and funding processes.

Fifty-eight participants brought their hearts and minds to the Gathering. A number facilitated sessions, served as rapporteurs and/or filled other roles. Several participants shared journal entries, drawings and comments for this book.

Others who contributed to the Gathering included:

Bee Clean
Betty Kiffiak, U of A (Local arrangements)
Campus Tower Suite Hotel
Dennis Miller (Refreshments)
Dish Design (Poster)
Elizabeth Norton (Hosting)
Elsie Johnson, TLC (Board representative)
